73/12 POLICE REPORT

RESOLVED written report (tabled at meeting) be received. Additional information exchanged on various matters.

74/12 PUBLIC OPEN FORUM

Ms H King of York Potash updated members on developments since her last visit. An Education & Skills Manager had now been appointed in order to help with ensuring the required skills were available within the area. A foundation trust had been set up which would contribute between £3-9million per year for local community projects. The location of the minehead was unlikely to be known before late summer.

75/12 COUNTY COUNCILLOR'S REPORT

NOTED County Cllr. Backhouse's report 1] the poor priority on the traffic lights at Hospital/Scalby Road junction was being addressed; 2] Area 3 highways (covering this area) was to receive about £350,000 from central government for extra highway works - members agreed with his suggestion that Coldyhill Lane from the zebra crossing to Scalby road should be resurfaced; 3] problems at Scalby library - there were plenty of volunteers but a reluctance among them for anyone to take on the management role; 4] NYCC had now acknowledged the fence at Scalby School playing field was in need of repair & he was doing his best to bring matters to a successful conclusion.
